CITROËN GRAND C4 PICASSO

Everything about having a large family costs a lot of money, which is why you should consider a new Citroën Grand C4 Picasso. It's Australia's most stylish and fuel efficient 7-seater, providing you with a saving on fuel costs that are really going to mount up with all those T-ball, soccer matches and footy games you'll be driving to. And right now, at $39,990 driveaway, with a saving of $6,000, the Citroën Grand C4 Picasso is as ridiculously keenly priced. So whilst having a large family is expensive, at least you'll get a break on the expense of moving them around.
